COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

In addition to the paving on Main Street that has recently been completed, the area on each side that is used for parking will be smoothed with paving material. Parking lines and cross walks will then be painted to complete the project.

Although other places have been doing streets in somewhat the same manner, this is Bethel's first experience with a surface of this type. I believe we have gained much knowledge for further use as to the proper procedure to follow and how to plan any maintenance using the same material.

In many places this type of surface is being used in heavy layers to maintain streets instead of doing a conventional reconstruction project. It may be a method for us to consider after we have seen the results of this street.

BETHEL SAVINGS BANK CORPORATORS MET MAY 22

The annual meeting of the Bethel Savings Bank Corporators was held Wednesday, May 22 at the Sudbury Inn. New corporators elected to fill vacancies caused by death, resignation and absence are Norman Greig, Charles Chapin and Ralph Ryder. The corporators then elected the current trustees: Kimball Ames, Richard L. Davis, Henry H. Hastings, Robert D. Hastings, Wilbur R. Myers, John W. Tringard and Edmond J. Vachon.

The Treasurer rendered a detailed report on the condition of the Bank which showed substantial gains in deposits, reserves and loans—mortgage, collateral, personal. He also advised that the Bank is writing United Student Aid Fund Loans for college and vocational students as a further service to the area.

Copies of the Emergency Preparedness Program recently adopted by the Trustees were distributed. This new program provides for management in depth and for the microfilming of all records kept in storage in a Lee, Mass. vault. The program arranges for the succession of officers and makes available duplicates of all records in the event of loss through catastrophic incident.

After a delicious roast beef dinner, the corporators and guests enjoyed a most interesting illustrated travelogue presented by S. Brainerd Vinton of Lovell, Maine. He and Mrs. Vinton took an extended trip through South America last winter and were indeed fortunate to capture on film some unique experiences made possible by a daughter, son and daughter-in-law, all members of the Peace Corps.

At a meeting of the trustees held later the same evening the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Kimball Ames; Vice President, Robert D. Hastings; Treasurer, Robert D. Hastings; Clerk, Edmond J. Vachon; First Assistant Treasurer, Mrs. Colleen Boyd; Second Assistant Treasurer, Henry H. Hastings.

FORESTRY CAMP ESCAPEES APPREHENDED

Two inmates who escaped from a forestry camp in Newry were recaptured Tuesday by Supt. Morton R. Johnson of the Men's Correctional Center, South Windham.

Johnson said he and a guard arrived at a camp in the White Rock section of Gorham (Maine) just about the same time that John M. Wallace, 20, of North Gorham, and Richard C. Burgess, 19, of Waterville got there. Neither man offered any resistance, the superintendent said.

Johnson said the pair had abandoned at the Otter Ponds in Standish a truck they had stolen in Newry. The truck is owned by P. H. Chadbourne of Bethel.

The two prisoners walked away from the work camp, operated in cooperation with the Forest Service, late Monday night.

IN MEMORIAM

In Loving Memory of Wayne Palmer
who passed away, May 30, 1962
He bade no last farewell,
He said goodbye to none.
The heavenly gates opened wide,
And a heavenly voice said

"Come".
God knew that he was suffering,
That the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed his heavy eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine".
They say time heals all sadness,
And helps one to forget,
But so far time has only proven,
How much we miss him yet.

KIMBALL FAMILY PLAN NATIONAL REUNION AT NO. BRIDGTON IN AUGUST

On May 17 a group of Kimball descendants met at Mrs. Everett Chapman's home in Harrison to plan the first national family reunion of the descendants of Richard Kimball, to be held at North Bridgton, Aug. 10, this year.

The Kimball family line is unusual in that all Kimballs in this country are descended from the common ancestor, Richard, of Rattlesden, England, who came first at Watertown, Mass., in 1634, and then Ipswich 1637 where he engaged in his trade as wheelwright. His brother, Henry, came to this country with him but his line ran out in the fifth generation.

Richard had eleven children who in turn produced nearly one hundred children, and it has been estimated that thousands of descendants now live.

Among his descendants was his great, great grand-daughter, Abigail Eastman, who married Ebenezer Webster, and they became the parents of Daniel Webster.

The group planning the reunion felt that since Benjamin Kimball was the first settler in Bridgton, followed by other Kimballs who became prominent in town affairs and establishing Bridgton Academy, that holding the reunion during Bridgton's Bi-centennial year would be appropriate.

The committee members are from Bridgton, Bethel, and Rumford. Asa Kimball, Jr., migrated from Bridgton to Bethel, as did brothers Israel, Joseph and sister, Hannah, and later the Asa Kimball, Sr., moved to Bethel, and are buried at East Bethel.

Most of the Kimballs in these towns are descendants of Asa, although early Rumford settlers, the twins Porter and Peter Kimball, were sons of Peter of Bradford, Mass. Asa's son, Moses P. Kimball, settled at Rumford Point. A number of distinguished professional and business men have been among the Rumford Kimball descendants, including William King Kimball, Harvard Law graduate who settled at Paris Hill in 1844, and later mustered out of the 12 Maine as Brevet Brigadier General. Also Wm. D. Kimball who migrated to Illinois and became manufacturer of Kimball pianos and organs.

Charles Kimball of Rumford went first to Boston then on to Chicago to become the country's largest carriage manufacturer.

The Committee is eager to have all Kimball descents make themselves known—the only published genealogy (Morrison and Sharples) was in 1897. Any member of the committee may be contacted, and they are: Mrs. Elizabeth Mason Carter, West Bethel; Mrs. Stuart Martin, Rumford Point; Mrs. Everett Chapman, Deer Hill Road, Harrison; Mrs. Myra Weeman, Harrison; Mrs. Joseph Watkins (summer Harrison), 100 Allen St., Manchester, N. H.; Blynn Davis and Miss Dorothy Davis, Bridgton, and George Richard Kimball, Bridgton.

GREENWOOD CITY

Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. —

This week we shall pay tribute not only to our brave defenders of years gone but to our noble boys who lie in lonely graves in far off lands and to our own loved ones who are no longer here.

Memorial Day, a day we hold for memory.

Think not only of sadness but look for the many treasures in memory which our minds possess. They are numerous and come from many places. Mine dip into the treasure house of good friends, unexpected pleasure, happy laughter, and non-sense shared.

Many things come back to us at this time when we are remembering. Without these thoughts we have for one another, there would be no Memorial Day.

The young measure the people and the world by what they hear, see, or feel. Therefore show that friendships can last through a lifetime, that there is satisfaction in work well done, happiness is found in learning something new day after day, and finally that there is love and beauty and goodness in people and the world if they pause to look for it. Each of us is a part of it all.

Then make this Memorial Day truly a day of memories. Look not only for sadness but delve into your treasure box and find those indestructible treasures you can draw upon through a lifetime.
